

WOMEN'S LEAGUE FOR CONSERVATIVE JUDAISM

PARTNER ORGANIZATIONS

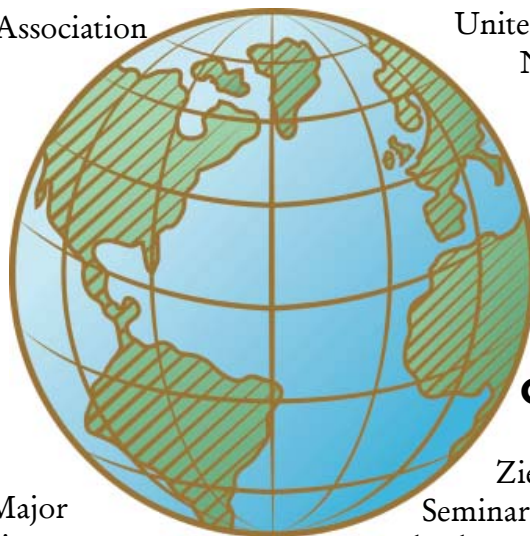

Our representation on and/or support of these organizations enables us to:

Enrich Jewish Cultural Life

United Synagogue Commission on Jewish Education
United Synagogue Youth Commission
Solomon Schechter Day School Association
National Ramah Commission
American Jewish Historical Society
Girl Scouts of America
Jewish Community Centers Association
Jewish Book Council
JBI International
The Jewish Museum
Jewish Women's Archive

Support Israel

Masorti Foundation for Conservative Judaism in Israel
MERCAZ, Zionist arm of the Masorti Movement
Conference of Presidents of Major
American Jewish Organizations
United Jewish Communities/Federations
Israel Bonds/Double Mitzvah Program
United Israel Appeal of Federations, Canada
T'nuat Am — Movement for Conservative Aliyah
Neve Hanna Village for Children & Youth
Masorti congregations

Encourage Social Responsibility

Jewish Council for Public Affairs (JCPA)
NCSJ Advocates on behalf of Jews in Russia, Ukraine, the Baltic States & Eurasia
World Jewish Congress
Religious Network for Equality for Women (RNEW)
Office of Public Information of the U.S.
United Nations Association of the USA
Non-Governmental Organizations of the United Nations Religious Coalition for Reproductive Choice
Coalition to Stop Gun Violence

Perpetuate the Conservative Movement

Jewish Theological Seminary
Ziegler School of Rabbinic Studies
Seminario Rabbinico Latino Americano
Leadership Council of Conservative Judaism
United Synagogue of Conservative Judaism
Masorti Movement in Israel
Schechter Institute, Jerusalem
Federation of Jewish Men's Clubs
Masorti Olami — World Council of Synagogues
KOACH
Kibbutz Hanaton
Moshav Shorashim

Members of sisterhoods affiliated with Women's League are encouraged to become involved with these organizations and to call on them for materials, consultations, resources, and speakers. You may use materials from any of these organizations, but information from other organizations should be approved in advance by a Women's League director.